The works at the Pokfulam Reservoir are steadily progressing, and the masonry of the aqueduct has been commenced.

The remanded case, in which Ober Aun, an amah, was charged by her mistress Lee Aee, with robbing her of jewellery to the amount of $200 on the 27th Sept., and absconding with her, has been tried in Lyndhurst Terrace with the property, case on again.

It appears the prosecutrix was incited to visit a friend in Wellington street on the day in question, and she went, taking the prisoner with her. A small girl, the daughter of the prosecutrix, was left alone in the house.

The prisoner was remanded for trial at the Criminal Court.

The following is the letter:

Hongkong, September 20th.

I have the honor to inform you, my dear Sir, to request you, say my way, at four o'clock this evening, away from police-men and interpreters, to receive me at "George Denison's," The Strand, London, on the 21st instant, leaving word he would not to be disturbed.

A warrant was then issued for his apprehension, and he was to come to town to-morrow.
